

BUSE HEBERER FROMM

Dr Hannes Hartung is Partner at Buse Heberer Fromm and Member of the Practice Groups Art, Media and Private Clients.

He is Adjunct Professor for International Art Law at the Universities of Munich, Graz and Hagen since 2006, ICOM-WIPO Mediator since 2011.

He has gained special expertise through examined trainings for the certified Tax, IP& Media and Inheritance Lawyer.

Among his acknowledged clients were and are Cornelius Gurlitt Collection (Munich Art Trove), The George Economou Collection, Swamp Legend (representing the City of Munich), the worlds dearest rug, East Side Gallery, Bayerische Staatsgemaldehydesammlungen, Bayerisches Landesdenkmalamt, Landeshauptstadt Muenchen and the Kunsthau Lempertz.

Dr Hartung advises art collectors, art galleries, art dealers, auction houses, artists, museums, private banks, family offices, insurance companies and art investment funds.

He frequently handles international art transactions and acts for clients buying and selling artworks and collections worldwide. He also has overseen complex restitution cases and was involved in complex cases for the authentication and inclusion of important works in the relevant catalogues raisonnés of famous artists.

Dr Hartung has published numerous articles on International Art Law Issues, including the handbook Art theft in war and persecution ("Kunstraub in Krieg und Verfolgung", 2005) and the chapter "Kunstrecht" at the renowned "Münchener Vertragshandbuch" in 2015. He frequently gives lectures on Art, Culture and Media Issues at Universities, Conferences and in Company trainings.

Buse Heberer Fromm is your partner for all national and international commercial and tax law issues. As a "full service" law firm with more than 100 specialised attorneys, auditors and tax consultants, we can assist you in all projects and transactions as well as in day-to-day matters. With six offices in the major German cities and eight foreign representative offices, Buse Heberer Fromm can provide competent service, tailored extensively and individually to your needs, both in Germany and abroad.

Dr Hannes Hartung
Equity Partner
hartung@buse.de

Barer Straße 7, 80333 München
Tel: +49 (89) 288 030 - 0
Fax: +49 (89) 288 030- 100
www.buse.de